

Duran Duran, GIVE IT ALL UP (feat. Tove Lo)

I give it all up for you

we are pinned to an evening that's running out of road as the the last ray of light heads into dark if it's closure you're craving some message in the code to fill the empty space in with your mark

I give it all up for you

standing on the edge of something greater than us all down into the heart of universes we fall falling with the fires trailing glory on their way know that we are heading for tomorrow today

Anyway , lover what you think
I am gonna do?
When i's all over
I give it al lup for you
Giving up beieving
Giving up completely
For you

Knowwing thet tha world will keep on turning Going on
And we let the night forever burn
When we're gone
Burning with the stars
That Wonder lonely on their way
Know that life is heading here tomorrow todey

Anyway , lover what you think
I am gonna do?
When i's all over
I give it al lup for you
Giving up beieving
Giving up completely
For you

I give it all up for you
