

Ella Eyre, New Me

Ella ain't here issa new me didn't have time when know me why you tryna call like booty take a step back and 180 I could play you like you played me really don't care for it lately tho you need to change your story babe tell me you want to talk not what you came here for this heart is closed that girl you know

don't behind the door anymore

Ella ain't here issa new me
I don't make time for you're foolin' kinda got things to be doing ella ain't here for problems left right left keep on walking shoulda took care of your diamonds gotta new phone gotta new key

got my girlfriends
and a new weave

and I don't do what I use to
when you call me tryna come thru
