

Halsey, woman/god

Every day I've got a smile where my frown goes,
A couple bodies and a gauntlet where the grass grows
I take them with me with a grave and a suitcase
Maybe I could be a different human in a new place
Sooooooo, I just wanna feel something, tell me where to gooooo
'Cause everybody knows something I don't wanna knooooow
So I stay right here 'cause I'm better all alone
Better all alone

I am not a woman I am a god
I am not a martyr, i am a problem
I am not a lvgend, i am aa fraud
If you have to say
Well, you've got one
I am not a woman I am a god
I am not a martyr, i am a problem
I am not a lvgend, i am aa fraud
If you have to say
Well, you've got one
