

Hania Sztachańska, This World

I fear real danger
This world ain't simple
But I'm strong, I know how to get out
And I'll find my way 'cause
'Cause it's love, real simple
And that's how it works

So won't you just give it up 'cause you don't understand
Big it up but you don't understand
And it's really nice, but you don't understand
So big it up, 'cause you don't understand
'Cause you don't understand baby

I feel it's fallin' down, I know I'll catch it
You crazy world, crazy world, yeah
I feel real passionate
You feel the sun comes down
I'll make it shine, yeah
You crazy world, crazy world yeah

I can see your fear 'cause
This world ain't simple
But I'm strong, I know how to stay out
And I'll find my way 'cause
'Cause it's love, it's love, it's love, it's love, it's loving yeah

So won't you just give it up
'Cause you don't understand
Big it up, but you don't understand
And it's really nice, but you don't understand
So big it up, 'cause you don't understand
'Cause you don't understand baby

I feel it's fallin' down, I know I'll catch it
You crazy world, crazy world, yeah.
I feel real passionate
You feel the sun comes down,
I'll make it shine, yeah
You crazy world, crazy world yeah

I feel it's fallin' down, I know I'll catch it
You crazy world, crazy world, yeah.
I feel real passionate
You feel the sun comes down,
I'll make it shine, yeah
You crazy world, crazy world yeah
Crazy world, crazy world yeah
Crazy world, crazy world yeah
