

Harry Styles, Cherry

don't you call him baby
we're not talking lately don't you call him you used to call me

I confess
I can tell that you are at your best I am selfish si I ma taking it I notice that there's a piece of you in how I dress take it as a compliment

I just miss
I just miss your accent and your friends did you know I still talk to them?

does he take you walking 'round his parents' gallery?
