

Harry Styles, Sunflower, Vol. 6

sunflower
sunflower
my eyes
want you more than a melody let me inside
wish I could get to know you

sometimes keep it sweet in your memory I was just tongue-tied

I don't wanna make you feel bad but I've been trying hard not to talk to you my sunflower

i couldn't want you any more kiss in the kitchen like it's a dancefloor I couldn't want you any more tonight wondering headshake tired eyes are the death of me mouths full of toothpaste before I got to know you

I've got your face hung up high in the gallery out of this shade

your flowers just died plant now seeds in the melody
let me inside
I wanna get to know you
but I've been trying hard not to act a fool

kids in the kitchen listen to dance hall

my eyes

sunflower just died keep in sweet in your memory I am still tongue-tied
