

Hayley Williams , Creepin'

Batty pair of eyes creepin' aiming like a laser pointer poor little vampire baby we bleed holy water

so why you creepin' round here why you creepin' round

strange you're not a threat to me I admire your dedication poor little vampire baby
don't you know I am a moon in delight

why you creepin' round here
why you creepin' round

it always starts as something so simple and innocent but too much of anything you'll never know how to quit you had a taste but you don't want to forget it just keep on suckin' on the memory of him

why you creepin' round
why you creepin' round here
why you creepin' round here
why you creepin' round
