

James Arthur, Avalanche

Paradise sleeping under bright white snow
I am alive, this could be it for we know
I am a mess
Don;t know what i would do without you
I could cry
Leading you donw
The same old road

I just never see it comong
Only butterflies until bullets fly around my head again
Sick of running in a circle
All the stomach pains
I am tired of medicating the adrenaline

Under this Avalanche wil you
Avalanche wil you
feel the world collapsing down
long as i am with you
nobody can hurt me now
it's been breaking me
breaking me
tired to the bone
youre saving me
say to me i am not alone
in this Avalanche wil you
Avalanche wil you
nobody can hurt us now

You and i
Maybe we'll disappear like ghosts Interwined, in a couple of years
They'll write our stone
Here lies a lucky man
Who was losing all hope
A real life and a beautiful soul
Who never let go

I just never see the warning
Only butterflies until bullets fly around my head again
Sick of running in a circle
All the stomach pains
I am tired of medicating the adrenaline

Under this Avalanche wil you

I think of all the wasted nights
Think of all the tears you cried
Because of me
Because of us
Ash to ash
Dust to dust
I don't wanna waste more time

We weill make it out alive
Hold my hand
I'll sleep forever

Under this Avalanche wil you
