

James Arthur, Medicine

you're my bulletproof vest when it's getting dangerous always make me feel blessed you're my guardian angel

you are
you are
you are
you are
you are
you are

you put your body on mine when you're taking you're the pin in my heart, it's so heavenly

you are
you are
you are the cure for all my scars

it feel like you could save me now when i am suicidal don't let me spiral you make my heart beat faster than adrenaline you kiss away the pain of all the hell i've been i know you make me better than i've ever been cause you're my medicine, you're my medicine you always say that you move to LA i'll buy you a plane and i'll fly you away you are my hell and nowhere escape everything gonna be Gucci Today

i know i hurt you i don't deserve you, no, no

i love the way you look in the balenciaga one sip of you
i am hooked
i wanna hit it harder no drug can fill this good now i am addicted you
