

Jason Derulo, Too Hot

all the ladies to the dance, oh yeah left the rules fall

I am a winner
now my neck froze
I am a winner
we could go up wiyth the lights down low girl is too hot to keep all these clothes toned poon shorts with the Louis whine up your waist and we Gucci only came out to run in to you the first thing I noticed that's you came to the club in a taxi but I am sure you preferred the rolls so we can get changed on the backseat cause It's summertime and you know

it's too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
baby it's too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes

been a man of a word and I, I, I, ain't nevereen a peng ting-tig o fly I bet you dance in the mirror like boop-ba-ba-doop all alone ad you're tempted to touch hen and Vodka that nu-that's all I drink I'm done chasing the truth clothes are scattered around on the floor but all I remember is that's you came to the club in a taxi

but I am sure you preferred the rolls
so we can get changed on the backseat

too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
too hot for clothes
