

Jessie Reyez, SAME SIDE

how come I can't leave ya talk to myself at night wondering why
I feel like I am tied down to someone who's making me cry more than making me smile leave ya, just make it through the night lying to myself saying I'll be fine I don't want you
I hate you I think
but I don't want to be alone either

you're such an asshole
but I see a price
and I am good girl
but you see a bitch
I wanna make love
you wanna burn a bridge

so I wish I was a bud guy so we could just be fighting on the same side
you're such an asshole
but I see a price
and I am good girl
so I wish I was a bad guy
just to be whit you

but I see a price
and I am good girl
I wanna make love
you wanna burn a bridge
