

John Mayer, Wild Blue

Never seen the sun before
Lying on the ocean floor
I'm walking through the wilderness
And living off the loneliness

Wild blue deeper than I ever knew
Wild blue on a bed of grey
Oh baby what a wild blue
I found myself when I lost you

All the tears i mean to cry
Dance across the evenig sky
And in my sorrow i can see
That missing you belongs to me

Wild blue deeper than I ever knew
Wild blue on a bed of grey
Oh baby what a wild blue
I found myself when I lost you

Wild blue deeper than I ever knew
Wild blue on a bed of grey
Oh baby what a wild blue
I found myself when I lost you

And you will never know
That unlikely beauty in lettin you go
