

John Newman, Stand By Me

you see every sky
i don't show my skin and you test every words passed by my lips
you know my every smile and what they all mean happy, sad, and broken or in between

I know you've seen all my imperfections you've seen all my rough you've seen that I ain't that perfect still you give me love

you stand by me
through the longest nights
through the hardest times

I know at times, I get too much you must feel like giving up would you stand by me?

you've seen me danced on my two left feet but you're not ashamed to dance whit me when you make me lose my breath you're the air that I need

but still you give me love
