

Joji, CAN'T GET OVER YOU (ft. Clams Casino)

I can't get over you can't get over you
and before I die I pray that I could be the one
but I won't be no fun
if I can't have you no one can limelight's, can't allow me can you show me to the feeling?

it felt like, more curse like but I want you and alright tell me more I got a box cutter with your name on it tell me more I can't stay this long on the same topic I don't know you why would I fall in love with you?
I don't have no social cues I'm all for you

I can't get over you
I could be the one
but I won't be no fun
if I can't have you no one can
