

Jojo, Worst (I Assume)

Too lit
Forgot who I was talking to shit
I don't wanna sabotage this but love ain't how they advertised it

I just hope you understand yeah
I know you be talkin to your friends

Ya tired
And it feels one sided

Little misguided
But i ain't looking for no side dick

I know i be fucking up the planes
So i just wanna say it in advance

Even though i though i was right
I was going off that night
Sometimes o am ot theat nice
Even though i am nor that type
I just had to call for forgiveness
I kwno it's at least in double digits
And i do it all the time
Thinking you can read my fucking mind

Iu keep assuming
That you're gonna do shit
That might break me heart
So i keep up my guard
And i know it's confusing
How i put you through it
My past and my scars
Still make it hard

Always the wost i assume
Don't get me closer to you
