

Jonas Blue, Rise (ft. Jack & Jack)

we're gonna rise till we fall this time we got no future at all they wanna keep us down but they can't hold us down anymore

when we hit the bottom then it goes up climb to the top with you we're gonna be the breaks once whoever waits ya I could be talking to you they tryna hate hate hate but we won't change change anything at all

they think we just dropped out living at my mom's house paris must be so proud
that know it all
they don't speak our language they say we're too savage no, no we don't need te anymore

we're gonna rise till we fall
we're gonna rise till we fall

so we're going mowhere but they don't know if we don't know don't vcare we're gonna keep on going till we can't fo no more
we're gonna rise till we fall

that know it all
they don't speak our language
