

Julia Pietrucha, On My Own

Don't look at me
Like you know how I am
Just because I'm blond and thin it's easy to tease
You can try to brake me down
Now, I f you please
But ain't now body to take away my peace
Because I got it on my own

My Own

So don't tell me how I should live
All this posts and hateful words
Have nothing to give
You can say
My live is been given to me
But ain't now body to thank for all that I've got
Because I got it on my own

My Own
My Own

So don't wake me up
While I dream
Inspite of you knocking me down I'm starting to breathe
You've tried to take my life away from me
But I won't conceal to change the way that I feel
Because I've got here on my own
