

Kaleo, Alter Ego

i've got two strong legs just like my father said on your feet, little man no go on and take what you can you've got the wind in your back now don't you go on and crack boy

I've got leverage but babe, when you touch me there feel I am about to break son, don't leave me this way don't leave me here

you feel it rush to your head this is the time to attack there's nothing holding you back now go ahead

lately I'm not the same I might just be there one baby don't hurt yourself
I might just be
I must be the one who you really think you're fooling there someone's out to get ya turning back around for you they're calling me back so I better go

I must be the one
