

Katy Perry, Mind Maze

I'm losing all direction
Slipping into quicksand
I've shattered the illusion
Seen behind the curtain
I'm disenchanted
Dancing on a wire
Juggling desire
Every hit gets harder
When you're fighting without armor
I'm disheartened

Do I start over, rediscover?
Submit to the sweet surrender

It's a mind maze
All these head games
Caught in a cage
Caught in a complex cage
Am I a car on fire?
Will be devoured?
I gotta free myself sand get out of my own way

I used to be so sparkling
But now it's not so charming
What used to simulate me
Now can barely wake me
I'm unresponsive
Will I find salvation?
Some kind of moderation?
Spinning all these plates is gonna be a challenge
A delicate balance

So do I start over, rediscover?
Submit to the sweet surrender

It's a mind maze
All these head games
Caught in a cage
Caught in a complex cage
Am I a car on fire?
Will be devoured?
I gotta free myself sand get out of my own way

Get out of my own way /2x

Do I start over, rediscover?
Submit to the sweet surrender

It's a mind maze
All these head games
Caught in a cage
Caught in a complex cage
Am I a car on fire?
Will be devoured?
I gotta free myself sand get out of my own way
