

Kesha, Here Comes The Change

one day I'll be gone the world will keep turning I hope I leave this place better than I found it

oh, it's hard
I know it's hard to be the lightening
in the dark
hold on tight
you be alright
you know it's time

Here Comes The Change
we're comin' of age
this is not a phase
Here Comes
Here Comes The Change

is it crazy thought that if I have a child I hope they live to see the day where everyone's equal

oh, it's hard
I know it's hard
to be the right
inside the wrong
hold on tight
you be alright
you know it's time

Here Comes The Change
we're comin' of age
this is not a phase
Here Comes
Here Comes The Change

hope there will come a time when we
we can live and die free I hope and pray
there will come a day and it's coming soon

Here Comes The Change
we're comin' of age
this is not a phase
Here Comes
Here Comes The Change
we're comin' of age
this is not a phase

it's time to change
we are the change
