

KSHMR & Yves V, No Regrets (feat. Krewella)

so i roll
like a stone
hands up in the air
I don't wanna care
and I'll die with no regrets

friend of mine
I get lost on the highway the wind keeps taking me one way they all say
I won't be happy
where I end up

love of mine
I got good times in my blood how many bottles are too much?
I don't know where to stop!

but I don't want to sacrifice the little things that make life worth living life worth living

like a stone
I don't wanna care
and I'll die with no regrets
i roll
like a stone
everything I break
and all of my mistakes
I can die with no regrets die with no regrets

like a stone
I don't wanna care

we've had heartaches
that hurt bad
but no I won't turn the clock back cause one day we'll know it's a part of the plan

one day the sun will not rise we don't got time to waste time so I'm gonna do it while I can

but I don't want to sacrifice

i roll
