

Kygo, Love Me Now (feat. Zoe Wees)

Love Me Now
Love Me Now
Love Me Now
Love Me Now

Only 24 hours in a day
24 hours, can't escape
In my head, living in it can be a real dark place
Got this grey cloud over my head
Breaking down here in my bed
And I'm running 'round and 'round and 'round just to go nowhere

Deep under the Surface
I am smiling but i am hurting
No one else can bring this hope back to my face

Who's gonna break this walls
Tell me i am beautiful
Who's gonna
Love Me Now
When the lights go out
Who's gonna pick me up
When i am feel like i am not enough
Who's gonna
Love Me Now
When the lights go out

Love Me Now
Love Me Now
Love Me Now
When the lights go out
Who's gonna
Love Me Now
Love Me Now
Love Me Now
When the lights go out

There's only so many feelings I can hide
So many tears to cry
Trying to be somebody to everybody all the time
Only got so much sanity,
Energy left in me
And I'm running 'round and 'round and 'round
Just to go nowhere

Deep under the Surface
I am smiling but i am hurting
No one else can bring this hope back to my face

Tell me i am beautiful
Who's gonna
Love Me Now
When i am feel like i am not enough
Who's gonna
Love Me Now

Love Me Now
Love Me Now
Love Me Now

Who's gonna
Love Me Now
Love Me Now
Love Me Now
