

Lenny Kravitz, Here To Love

we must all united for we are one creation we must join the fight together we are strong we ust do what's right nin every situation love each other's lives as you would do your own just think twice before you cast your stone at someone's soul

it's their life so the choice is theirs and theirs alone

we are not here to judge
we are here to love
there's no room for hate we are just one human race we must rise above
we are here to love
there's no time to waste anymore

we are here to love

we are here to love
