

Mariah Carey, Save The Day (with Ms. Lauryn Hill)

We're all in this together
You're my only hope
And it's too divided
Too deep to understand
But if we don't do it
Tell em, who will?

Oh always say these words that don't mean too much
I Wonder where is the love?
It's curious
The fear still holding us down
One day, will we look up
