

Marshmello x Flux Pavilion, Room To Fall (Feat. I

the edge of the Earth
before you jump
before you curse
the world you come from

when the sky is dark
when it's empty stars
when an edge of a blade
could end who
you are hang on!

if you can look down
then you've got more room to fall
if you can look down
then you haven't hit the bottom at all
hang on!

reaching the end
the end of your rope
eyes full of tears
drowning in hope

when your thought go dark and you don't wanna know what the future holds
you just wanna let go

if you can look down
hang on!
