

Marta Gałuszewska, Why don't we go

Why don't we go
I don't we go
I swear to God I didn't know we hit this haha
don't you love a week like

we go on and on again
but you know we can't push the runs away we should touch
coz talk is cheap
oh, know
we don't have to speak

getting high on
on your love
so why don't we
why don't we go

somewhere only we know
let's get out of sight tonight lying in the shut those we don't need alibies we don't have to be sorry such a we ignite think we could a place that only w know why don't we
why don't we go?
