

Martin Garrix, These Are The Times (feat. JRM)

when life gets you down we find a way to make it better when days turn into dark that's when we light up together these are times that we've been praying for these are the moments that we will not forget this is the life what we've been waiting for I wouldn't change it for nothing

this is the life what we've been waiting for
I wouldn't change it for nothing

now that it's clear we made it through the rain together it feels like home so why don't we just stay forever

this is the life what we've been waiting for
I wouldn't change it for nothing
this is the life what we've been waiting for
I wouldn't change it for nothing
