

Matt Dusk, Let's Hop On A Plane!

way down and pop adios there's beach with our names bagels in Brussels
with a sign of n yeas

why wait another day
we could be there now together
what do you say, baby?
let's hop on a plane

big suites in Vegas all the time swing it all woodrats in Venice taken in the Taj Mahal

why wait another day
coz the worlds won't spin forever
what do you say, baby?

we don't need reason why singing high upon the 9 living all of our cares behind my hype with you

sipping on the best champagne paradise we are on our way to a coconut holiday brand new honeymoon

jazz in New Oreland
march in the muddy crowd next stop is Rio
let's dress for carnival

you ain't can be jet-setters
what do you say, baby?
