

Michael Bublé (Michael Buble), Forever Now

I just met you
It seems like yesterday
You opened up your eyes and I recognized your face You know that you're the one that we've been waiting for We're gonna keep you safe
First time I held you in my arms I knew I'd love you all the way I tuck you in at night Another day has passed

every week goes by a little faster than the last it wasn't so long ago we walked together and you held my hand and now you're getting too big to want to but I hope you'll always understand that I am never gonna let you down no matter what you do I'm forever proud of you I'll love you forever now through your ears I hear it through your eyes I see a world full o' magic full of possibilities you know as well as anybody how tough this life can be but you've got so much strength inside you a strength I pray you'll never need and I am always gonna lift you up and I am never gonna let you down time flies by
I hope you realize that I'll love you forever I am always gonna be right here always gonna cheer you up I am always have you back you're never gonna be alone
