

Miłosz Świetlik Skierski, Open Wide

There's something beautiful
On the horizon
There's something
And it's worth fighting for

Moving towards
What i see
When i am dreaming
With my heart wide open

There's a place
You and I
We can go together
There's a place
That feels like
We can walk when

Don't you think
We can spetping
With our hearts wide open

Open, open
wide open wide open
Open, open
wide open wide open
