

MØ, Red Wine (ft. Empress Of)

don't give a damn about the rumors they have never bothered me yeah and I might be a fool but I am linkin' what my eyes can see and I am in love whit the rush boy, whit the rush boy that you make me feel
yeah I prefer mystery

feeling like a loose leaf stuck on the tree blowing in the wind come help me be free like a shimmering stars all smiling at me pour the red wine, red wine
blowing in the wind come help me be free
and pour the red wine, red wine baby
and pour the red wine, red wine baby

I don't care for the truth, boy you can be who you please I've had enough of reality longing for the sweet relief and I am in love whit the rush, boy love whit the rush, boy you wouldn't believe and right now we're no one so baby let's breathe

all the girls around the world will say it boy I need love, I need action, action
ever craves a distraction, don't you?

blowing in the wind come help me be free
pour the red wine, red wine
blowing in the wind come help me be free
and pour the red wine, red wine baby
and pour the red wine, red wine baby

I want a lick
I want live out all my fantasies dance on every table till they're mad at me throw my hair back in the breeze boy you're right there whit me should believe gold summer breeze throw your eyes at me trying to spot me from flying but I won't no, no pour a red wine

pour the red wine, red wine

and pour the red wine, red wine baby
