

Netta, Nana Banana

I was sitting all day long in my pajama eating peanut butter jelly with my mama always fighting with myself just for the drama for the drama

I see pushi pushi people all around now but my belly belly's telling me to run now they keep asking me to shine just like the sun now like the sun now but I don't wanna

baby it's so comfortable in my bubble I stay
always running away
cuz baby it's so comfortable they keep calling my name I;m not hearing nothing

nana banana
I do what I want

I keep picturing myself as if I am rising and I am fanta fanta fanta fantasizing boy I take my time I am not apologizing clock goes tick tack on my belly on my back

they keep calling my name
