

No Rome, Spinning (ft. Charli XCX & The 1975)

Found you at 4 in the morning
Confidence soaring
Though you moved onto a new thing
But you keep it revolving
I look so good dressed in nothing
You ended up falling
I never needed your shelter
I am good with no Warming

My love like a city
All night , everywhere
You love being whit me
You never forget
24/7 in Heaven
But nothing compares
Though you'd get over the feeling

But you just spinning over there
But you jusy keep spinning over there
Cause you just keep
You must be feeling the pain
You must be wondering
Amphetamines in your brain
Maybe you're suffering
I must be causing your pain
I let you do teh same
But you never regret thing
Cause the game feels so good to win, darling

You just keep spinning over there
You just keep spinning over there
You just keep spinning over there
You just keep spinning over there
You just keep spinning over there
