

Sofia Carson, He Loves Me, But...

He Loves me, Loves Me, loves me But...
He Loves me, Loves Me, loves me But...

Tell me, did you know right from the start
That we would end up right here where we are?
You're such a good guy, play the part
Showin' up with only half a heart

He says it's best for me
But i don't really remember him askin' me
He says it's best for me
But i don't really remember him askin'

He Loves me, Loves Me, loves me But...
he say he can
He Loves me, Loves Me, loves me But...
he's not ready yet
I remember all your drunken half-forevers
He Loves me, Loves Me, loves me But...
