

SoKo, Being Sad Is Not a Crime

i'm a threat to myslef i understand yu're just trying to help listen to the symphony
I make up un my head
I lay it out so clear for you
for you

you make feel like a child
you make me
you make me
you make me

the needles suffering
I put up on myself
I am responsible for it I can't live uo to the fantasy that you made a part of me
