

Tame Impala, Lost In Yesterday

when we were living in squalor wasn't it heaven back when we used to get on it four outta seven now even though that was a time i hate from day one eventually, terrible memories turn into great ones

so if they call you embrace them
if they hold you erase them

cause it might have been something, who's to say?
does it help to get lost in yesterday? and you might missed something, don't say cause it has to get lost in yesterday you've been digging it up like Groundhog Day cause it might have been something, don't say cause it has to get lost in yesterday might've said life didn't go the way that he'd planned it said: what, I'd give to start over boy, I demand it!

so what was I ever afraid of why did I worry and why was I ever so-brainless head in a flurry?