

Tom Odell, If You Wanna Love Somebody

You should look at your reflection If you wanna see a lie You're heading in the right direction If you wanna pick a side

Give me more perfection if you wanna see me cry

if you wanna love somebody
if you wanna love somebody
I'm your guy
I'm your guy

you should get your car a starting if you wanna be apart go to the Californian party If you wanna fuck a star And flick back through your memories if you want a broken heart

if you wanna love somebody
if you wanna love somebody
I'm your guy
I'm your guy

lie /3x
I'll be waiting cry /3x
I'll be waiting
Till you decide you wanna be in love you really shouldn't let me hold you if you wanna just pretend you gotta make your kiss a little colder if it's ever gonna end

if you wanna love somebody
I'm your guy
I'm your guy

you wanna be back in love
do you wanna be back in love you gotta know that by now
