

Tony Allen, Go Back (feat. Damon Albarn)

When you see the same reflections of the city lights but you're far away at sea whit all the satellites and the runaways

what am I gonna do with you
if you go back
you're a run away
if you go back

and when the harbor masters comes o switch of the lights and the waiting rooms are empty
of everyone

does anyone
if you go back
does anyone
if you go back

does anyone see
you left out on the rocks
does anyone see
you gotta go back

when the only way home
is a southern star
and the backside view of you is Saturday

and anyway
what am I gonna do with you
if you go back
and anyway
what am I gonna do with you
if you go back
