

Travis Scott, STOP TRYING TO BE GOD

STOP TRYING TO BE GOD

ride for it every night visions and these angels tight truth be told I never try diamonds on the wifin' like all three rollies look alike after 2 you get a hook-up price stripper never worked a nine to 5 delta and I ship it overnight stop tryna by God almighty fuck the money

never leave you people behind it's never love no matter what you try still can see it comin' down your eyes cause they did not create commandments

when you hustle
always make it fancy
the signal's far from what you can be cause air traffic controls the landing

stop tryna be God almighty
stop tryna be God almighty
that's not who you are
stop tryna be God almighty
that's not your job

stop tryna play God almighty always keep your circle tight I been wantin' shit my whole life I wanted you nad
if I love her, I'ma pass her one first rule of war, you find an act of one you can't win a trophy or a plaque off her bur never turn your back on

when you hustle

you won't succeed tryna learn me stick to the roads in my journey stay out of court when you got the attorney she say she love 'em, want to really burn me
