

ukeboy, Psychopath

it's not that easy when everybody's gone so far I am so bussy
I cannot find a time to cry
I feel so empty I've almost died and it was fine but now I am here just sitting come on alyssa
come here and change my mind

I'm pulling my trigger another shell is falling down you're my protector my rationality and love I've seen the devil he wears my fase and favoutrie blouse my fears are back cause I am finally anything in my heart
