

WHALE CITY, The Shore

I was searching for the shore
But I was a million miles away
I walked throughout this fallen world
Just to find a ray of love
I was scared but I had no doubt
That I could find it anyhow

With you i feel alive
With you i am gonna be alright

I was seearchng for the shore
And the things we were waiting for
So tired i wanted to run and hide
I was just asking for a sign
Far away tehre was this beautiful sound
And i need to find it anyhow

With you i feel alive
With you i am gonna be alright
With you i found my peace of mind
Wit you i've gonna live my life
