

Will Ferrell & Molly Sanden , Husavik - My Home

all by myself with this great big world before me but it's all for someone else i've tried and tried again to let you know just where my heart is to tell the truth and not pretend all i needed was to get away just to realize that i was meant to stay where the mountain sing through the screams of seagulls where the whales can live cause they're gentle people in my i made it clear do i have to say it?

It was always there
We just didn't see it?
All i need is you and me and my home
