

Will Young, Brave Man

See these scars of these years gone by
They don't hurt me, just remind me I can cry
All that I know is we'll slip as we go
Like dancers hold the bar across the wall
Draw up the horses, spears at the ready
I'm not afraid to fight the war

I'm a brave man
Running through the rain
I'm a brave man
Not scared to feel the pain
I'm a brave man
Follow me alone
Not afraid to tumble
Not afraid to fall
I'm a brave man

I met strangers to become my friends
Together we'll shine on this battlefield
Draw up the horses, spears at the ready
I'm not afraid to fight the war

I'm a brave man
Running through the rain
I'm a brave man
Not scared to feel the pain
I'm a brave man
Follow me alone
Not afraid to tumble
Not afraid to fall

All my reasons and my tears they spill on this fake proof
Aches and pains each took it out there bursting out these pores
Melted wax on fireplaces pumping through my heart
I don't need this misery anymore

I'm a brave man
Running through the rain
I'm a brave man
Not scared to feel the pain
I'm a brave man
Follow me alone
Not afraid to tumble
Not afraid to fall.
