

X Ambassadors, Ahead Of Myself

Thought i was ready
Ready for someone else
But every time I get ahead of myself /2x
Thought I was rock steady
That I didn't need no help
But every time I get ahead of myself /2x

Guess I went and jumped the gun again
Some shitty situation that I put you in
And I know we poured champagne
Maybe we was just too qquick to celebrate

Thought i was ready
Ready for someone else
But every time I get ahead of myself /2x
Thought I was rock steady
That I didn't need no help
But every time I get ahead of myself /2x
