

Yung Pinch, Nightmares (ft. Lil Skies)

beach boy in this ho
beach boy in this ho
watch as I step on the scene
this how we livin'
no actin'
this how we livin'
no actin'
I got her wet in her dreams
think she ready for

watch as I step on the scene
no actin'
got her wet in her dreams
I think she ready for
ain't no lock on the door
she drop the top on the floor there ain't no stopping us now if somebody knock, let me know I am taking you down
slaying you now
she say she want me
she love to taunt me

nightmares of you and I still haunt me long nights and a lot of spilled coffee I am kissing all those good days bye-bye forget my name, forget the code to my wifi I am going attacked to the dance with a bag in my pants you had your last chance now you sad cause I am gone mad cause I am on and I am glad to be fifth course it had to be me it's scientifically proven you took a toll on me
I can't believe my homies fucking told on me
I did it you
you know it
go 'head and cry; about that I admit, I am stupid, and I won't lie about that but after all this
I am ok. though no way to spot me when you're this far gone catch a plane and fine me, I am the next flight on

watch as I step on the scene
no actin'
I am taking you down
she say she want me

I never post what I do
I really live whet I;m rapping she gon' tell you to wait for me

it's light, camera, action
I hope right off the plane
I stash my racks oin the mattress I came in through the back and I still leave with my backend shawty turned this dream to a nightmare you see me bossed up and you think it's not fair I don't wanna hear you side cause I don't care you jealous cause I went and felt the tension in the air all the times I lost I could never het back I would never tell lies I shall only speak facts man, you said thayt you side even when I am cross the map don't put blame on me a lot ofd people hatin' on me but you know I am strong I am built forthis shit sep on the scene fly it's Skies and Young Pitch, you li' bitch

watch as I step on the scene
no actin'
I am taking you down
slaying you now
she say she want me
