

YUNGBLUD, 21st Century Liability

in a place where they fall to inspire I'm drinking the bleach so that I feel the fire inside is a riot but I'm in too deep a mile in /2x

in a place where they think I'm a stranger I'm shaving my face with a coke covered razor I press hard so it goes in deep
a mile in /2x

I'm a 21st Century liability
I'm a 21st Century liability
I'm a 21st Century liability
Bang! /3x
it's a bollocks
/2x

when I was younger I had a proper plan keep myself naive take advice from the man but I turned 167 and I saw in my head he was blowing up the world with a ball point pen I met a person I think I fell in love
A certain kind of love you can't find in drugs
But I fucked it up needed alone time it's like I killed myself
I love you long time

I'm a 21st Century liability
I'm a 21st Century liability
I'm a 21st Century liability
Bang! /3x
it's a bollocks
/2x

I'm a 21st Century liability /4x

I'm a 21st Century liability
I'm a 21st Century liability
I'm a 21st Century liability
Bang! /3x
it's a bollocks
/2x
